Authers' Note:

Good news is bad news (once more)

The dollar has moved sharply higher on a raft of generally positive US economic data - and that has pushed US stocks lower. John Authers suggests that worries about the Federal Reserve and rates now trump all other concerns.

Good points on smart beta bond indexing.

Article: Banks offer little investment attraction - _astrolavos_

Great read, indeed! We should also see a decline in the debt levels of people in developed countries so that we can decide whether is a good investment time or not. Having a wage stagnation, the picture is not rosy yet..
